

A DRUMMER'S TESTAMENT:
Dagbamba Society and Culture in the Twentieth Century

Online:

How to Navigate the Website

Links to Volumes and Supplementary Files

FRONT MATTER

Table of Contents

Research Associates and Consultants

Co-Authors

Expanded Table of Contents

Notes on Dagbani Pronunciation and Orthography

Acknowledgments

Maps

Map 1: Ghana: principal towns and tribes cited

Map 2: Northern and Upper Regions of Ghana: major towns cited

Map 3: Dagbon: all towns and villages cited

JOHN CHERNOFF'S INTRODUCTION

Preamble: Trees

Dagbon: Close from a Distance

Relative Systems

The Anthropological Heritage

Dagbon: Closing the Distance

The Ethnographic Seed

The Translation

The Creative

Testament: The Eulogy of Alhaji Mumuni

The Treasure

The Receptive

Volume I: THE WORK OF DRUMMING

Part 1: ALHAJI IBRAHIM'S INTRODUCTION TO THE DAGBAMBA WAY OF LIVING

- 1: The Benefits of Friendship and Why We Should Do the Work as a Group
- 2: The Dagbamba Way of Living in the Villages and in the Towns
- 3: The Sense of Dagbamba and Their Living in the Olden Days
- 4: Respect and the Dagbamba Way of Living Together
- 5: The Way of a Stranger and How a Stranger Should Live in Dagbon
- 6: Greetings and Respect in Dagbon
- 7: How Dagbamba Send Messengers
- 8: The Debt of the Stomach
- 9: Patience, Truth, and How We Should Do the Talks

Part 2: DRUMMERS AND DRUMMING IN DAGBON

- 10: The Work of Drumming
- 11: The Respect of Drumming and How Drumming Started in Dagbon
- 12: Drummers and the Other Musicians of Dagbon
- 13: How We Make Our Drums and Gungons
- 14: How a Drum is Beaten

Part 3: MUSIC AND DANCING IN COMMUNITY EVENTS

- 15: Proverbs and Praise-names
- 16: The Praise-Name Dances and the Benefits of Music
- 17: How a Person Should Dance
- 18: Baamaaya, Jera, Yori, Bila and Other Dances of Dagbon
- 19: Takai and Tora
- 20: Funerals
- 21: Muslims' Funerals and Chiefs' Funerals

Part 4: LEARNING AND MATURITY

- 22: How Children are Trained in Drumming
- 23: Traveling and Learning the Dances of Other Tribes
- 24: Drum Chieftaincies
- 25: How Drummers Share Money

Volume II: OLD TALKS:
DRUMMERS, CHIEFS, HISTORY AND RELIGION

Part 1: CHIEFTAINCY

- 1: The Forbidden Talks of Drumming
- 2: How Drummers Search for Old Talks
- 3: The Origins of Dagbon before Naa Gbewaa
- 4: Naa Shitobu and Naa Nyaysi: The Founding of Dagbon
- 5: The Yaa-Naa and the Yendi Elders
- 6: Chieftaincy in Dagbon
- 7: How Princes Get Chieftaincy and Go to Hold a Town
- 8: How Chiefs Judge Cases

Part 2: HISTORY

- 9: Samban' Luṇa, the Drum History
- 10: The First Gonja War: Naa Dariḡeyu and Naa Luro
- 11: The Chieftaincy of Naa Zanjina, the Light of Dagbon
- 12: The Second Gonja War: Naa Zanjina and Naa Siyli
- 13: The Cola and Slave Trades: Naa Garba and the Ashantis
- 14: The Pre-Colonial and Colonial Periods
- 15: Modern History and the Chieftaincy Crisis

Part 3: FESTIVALS IN COMMUNITY LIFE AND THE WORK OF DRUMMERS

- 16: The Fire Festival
- 17: The Damba Festival
- 18: The Guinea Fowl, Ramadan, and Chimsi Festivals

Part 4: RELIGION AND MEDICINE

- 19: The Dagbamba Belief in God
- 20: The Muslim Religion in Dagbon
- 21: The Pilgrimage to Mecca
- 22: Soothsayers and Diviners
- 23: The Priests of the Land
- 24: Gods and Shrines
- 25: Medicine
- 26: Drummers' Medicines
- 27: Diseases and Medicine
- 28: Madness

Volume III: IN OUR LIVING

Part 1: ECONOMIC LIFE

- 1: Farming in Dagbon
- 2: How Dagbamba Sow Their Farms
- 3: The Work of Guinea Corn and Other Crops
- 4: Rice Farming
- 5: Groundnuts, Shea Nuts, Kpalgu, and Animals
- 6: Markets in Dagbon
- 7: Modern Types of Work and Agricultural Development

Part 2: FAMILY

- 8: Family and Lineage
- 9: How a Family Separates
- 10: What Has Strength in Dagbamba Families

Part 3: CHILDREN

- 11: The Benefits of Many Children
- 12: How a Child is Given Birth
- 13: Special Problems of Children
- 14: How Children Are Raised
- 15: How Girls Grow Up in the Villages
- 16: How Boys Grow Up in the Villages

Part 4: HOUSEHOLDING

- 17: How Dagbamba Marry
- 18: The Life of Bachelors
- 19: Why Dagbamba Marry Many Wives
- 20: How Dagbamba Feed Their Families
- 21: How a Husband and Wife Love One Another
- 22: The Work Women Do in a House and How They Help One Another
- 23: Sex and Rivalry in a House
- 24: How a Husband and Wife Separate

Part 5: OLD AGE

- 25: Widows
- 26: The Life of Old People

Part 6: CONCLUSION

- 27: Alhaji Ibrahim's Reflections on the Work

SUPPORTING MATERIALS

Supplementary supporting materials within the chapter portals:

Photographs and image galleries

Audio recordings of selected drumming and music to accompany the text

Figures, genealogical charts, and tables as readers' aids for managing information

Chapter outlines by paragraph with links to chapter sections

Proverbs and sayings excerpted from chapter texts

Dagbani word lists excerpted in ASCII and phonetic characters

Also online:

Project status

- Current upload dates of PDF files

- File uploads and revisions history

Note on currency values

Direct links to:

- Chapter outlines

- Photographs and images

- Audio recordings

- Figures, charts, and tables